Leonard - cmleonard1@cox.net]

Nathaniel Johnson was born on 19 Mar 1670 in Roxbury, Boston, Suffolk County, Massachusetts as the second child of Nathaniel Johnson and Mary Smith. He had seven siblings, namely: John Deacon, Smith, Mary, Isaac, Elizabeth, Rebecca, and Hannah. In 1682 the Colony of Massachusetts bought a tract of land, which included Woodstock, from the Mohegan Indians. In 1686 a group of 13 men from Roxbury, Massachusetts established a new town there and named it New Roxbury, Colony of Massachusetts. His father, Nathaniel, was one of the founders of this new town of New Roxbury, then in Massachusetts NOT Connecticut! About 1686 the family moved, about 40 miles south west of Boston, to New Roxbury, then in the Colony of Massachusetts, now Woodstock, Windham County, Connecticut. Woodstock was considered a part of Roxbury and the deeds and probates for that town were recorded in Suffolk County, Massachusetts until 1731 when this portion of Suffolk County became Worcester County, Massachusetts. Woodstock remained a part of Worcester County until May 1749 when the town of Woodstock, formerly New Roxbury, Worcester County, Massachusetts, was unilaterally annexed by Connecticut and assigned to Windham County! (USE CAUTION WHEN CHECKING RECORDS FOR WOODSTOCK BETWEEN 1686 AND 1749!!!) When he was 19, He married Hannah Hoadley, daughter of William Hoadley and UNKNOWN, about Nov 1689 in Woodstock, Windham, Connecticut. Hannah Hoadley was born in Nov 1670 in Branford, New Haven, Connecticut, USA as the sixth child of William Hoadley and UNKNOWN. She had six siblings, namely: William, Samuel, Mary, John, Elizabeth, and Abraham. She was christened on 08 Nov 1670 in Branford, New Haven, Connecticut. Hannah and Nathaniel had at least 9 children, 4 did not survive the first 4 months of life: The family lived in Woodstock Windham County, Connecticut until about 1701 when they moved to Branford, New Haven County, Connecticut. Nathaniel first appeared in the Branford town records in December 1701, when his ear mark for cattle was recorded. He was deeded property by both his brother-in-law and father-in-law in 1703. That same year he traded the land he had purchased from his father-in-law. Hannah died 15 January 1725 and Nathaniel died 8 September 1726, both in Branford, New Haven County, Connecticut where they are buried [The burial information in Find A Grave, noted as "burial presumed," is incorrect, and they were buried in Branford!!!!] CHILDREN: Abigail Johnson was born on 11 Jan 1691 in Woodstock, Windham, Connecticut, USA.
